50X1-HUM

1. The former destroyer BURZA is now in the Paris Commune Shipyard and work has been started on her major overhaul.¹
2. The small cargo ship PILICA (BUG-type), built for the Polish Merchant Marine, has been towed to the shipyard of the Ships' Repair Service (Remontowa Obslugi Statkow) where she will be completed.
3. Two new slipways for broadside launching of ships (boczne wodowanie) have been constructed in the hull workshop (kadlubownia).
4. A new sector of the wharf, equipped with a heavy crane imported from Germany, has been constructed near the administration building. More cranes are to be installed in this sector.
5. Important changes in key posts have taken place following the failure of the shipyard to carry out the production targets. The former director of the 50X1-HUM shipyard, Perkowski, was suspended and Skrzynowski [] was appointed in his place. A change has also occurred in the post of head of production. This office is now held by Graczyk. The former chief, Kusinski, has been arrested. Gorgon has been appointed managing clerk (dyspozytor).

1. Comment. It is believed that this vessel will be used as a 50X1-HUM training ship.
